2 9A.72.010, 10.32.010, 10.32.130, 10.32.090, and 10.32.100; and adding 3 new sections to chapter 10.32 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 10.32.070 and 2024 c 207 s 8 are each amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (1) Subject to the provisions of RCW 10.32.050, a place of 8 detention shall deliver or make available a person in custody to the 9 noncertified tribe without a judicial order of surrender provided 10 that:

11 ~~((1))~~ (a) Such person is alleged to have broken the terms of 12 his or her probation, parole, bail, or any other release of the 13 noncertified tribe; and

14 ~~((2))~~ (b) The place of detention has received from the 15 noncertified tribe an authenticated copy of a prior waiver of 16 extradition signed by such person as a term of his or her probation, 17 parole, bail, or any other release of the noncertified tribe and 18 photographs or fingerprints or other evidence properly identifying 19 the person as the person who signed the waiver.

20 (2) As used in this section, "authenticated copy" means a copy of 21 a prior waiver of extradition signed by an authorized representative

1 of the tribal court attesting the document is a true record of the 2 tribal court waiver of extradition.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 10.32
4 RCW to read as follows:

5 The certified or noncertified tribe demanding the extradition of 6 a tribal fugitive pursuant to this chapter shall have standing in any 7 hearing in state court testing the legality of the extradition.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 10.32
9 RCW to read as follows:

10 (1) Upon issuing a tribal warrant, the court of a tribe may file
11 such warrant with the superior court of the county in which the tribe 12 is physically located along with:

13 (a) A certified copy of the charging document;
14 (b) The tribal code provision, constitutional provision, or 15 federal statute authorizing the certified tribe to exercise criminal 16 jurisdiction over the tribal fugitive for whom the tribal warrant has 17 been issued; and 18 (c) Identifying information for the tribal fugitive.

19 (2) A warrant so filed shall be timely reviewed by a superior
20 court. If the court makes a finding of probable cause that a tribal 21 fugitive subject to a filed tribal warrant has been charged with a 22 crime by the filing tribe, the court must order the issuance of a 23 state warrant of arrest for such tribal fugitive from justice under 24 section 4 of this act, which shall expire six months after issuance, 25 unless withdrawn earlier under subsection (4) of this section.

26 (3) Any judicial proceedings involving a tribal fugitive subject 27 to a warrant filed under this section must occur in the county where 28 the tribal fugitive is first detained.

29 (4) A warrant filed under this section must be withdrawn once the 30 person who is the subject of the tribal warrant has submitted to the 31 tribe's tribal court jurisdiction or been arrested.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 10.32
33 RCW to read as follows:

34 Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the 35 oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this 36 state with the commission of any crime by any federally recognized 37 tribe with territory located within the borders of the state of

1 Washington and with having fled from justice, or with having been 2 convicted of a crime by any federally recognized tribe with territory 3 located in the state of Washington and having escaped from 4 confinement, or having broken the terms of such person's bail,
5 probation, or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made 6 before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the 7 affidavit of any credible person of a federally recognized tribe with 8 territory within this state that a crime has been committed for which 9 the tribe has criminal jurisdiction and that the accused has been 10 charged by such tribe with the commission of the crime, and has fled 11 from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that 12 tribe's courts and having escaped from confinement, or having broken 13 the terms of such person's bail, probation, or parole and is believed 14 to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant 15 directed to any peace officer commanding such officer to apprehend 16 the person named therein, wherever such person may be found in this 17 state, and to bring such person before the same or any other judge, 18 magistrate, or court who or which may be available in or convenient 19 of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the 20 charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn 21 charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued 22 shall be attached to the warrant.

30 jurisdiction of the tribal court.

31 (7) "Tribal police officer" has the same meaning as in RCW
32 10.92.010.

33 Sec. 7. RCW 10.32.130 and 2024 c 207 s 14 are each amended to 34 read as follows:

35 (1) A peace officer (~~or a peace~~) as defined in RCW 43.101.010,

4 legal advisor acted in good faith and without malice.

5 (2) Chapter 207, Laws of 2024 is not intended to limit, abrogate, 6 or modify existing immunities for prosecuting attorneys for good 7 faith conduct consistent with statutory duties.

8 Sec. 8. RCW 10.32.090 and 2024 c 207 s 10 are each amended to 9 read as follows:

10 (1) A peace officer may arrest a person subject to a tribal 11 arrest warrant from a noncertified tribe when the warrant is 12 presented by a tribal court representative or tribal law enforcement
13 officer to the peace officer or a general authority Washington law 14 enforcement agency as defined in RCW 10.93.020 or entered in the 15 national crime information center (~~((interstate identification index))~~) 16 or Washington information center. The arrested person must be brought 17 to an appropriate place of detention and then to the nearest 18 available superior court judge (~~((without unnecessary delay))~~) the next 19 judicial day. The superior court judge shall issue an order 20 continuing custody upon presentation of the tribal arrest warrant.

21 (2) The judge shall inform the person appearing under subsection 22 (1) of this section of the name of the noncertified tribe that has 23 subjected the person to an arrest warrant, the basis of the arrest 24 warrant, the right to assistance of counsel, and the right to require 25 a judicial hearing before transfer of custody to the applicable 26 noncertified tribe.

27 (3) After being informed by the judge of the effect of a waiver, 28 the arrested person may waive the right to require a judicial hearing 29 and consent to return to the applicable noncertified tribe by 30 executing a written waiver. If the waiver is executed, the judge 31 shall issue an order to transfer custody under subsection (5) of this 32 section or, with consent of the applicable noncertified tribe, 33 authorize the voluntary return of the person to that tribe.

34 (4) If a hearing is not waived under subsection (3) of this 35 section, the court shall hold a hearing within (~~((three days))~~) 72 36 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, after the initial appearance.
37 The arrested person and the prosecuting attorney's office shall be 38 informed of the time and place of the hearing. The court shall 39 release the person upon conditions that will reasonably assure

1 availability of the person for the hearing or direct a peace officer
2 to maintain custody of the person until the time of the hearing.
3 Following the hearing, the judge shall issue an order to transfer 4 custody under subsection (5) of this section unless the arrested
5 person established by clear and convincing evidence that the arrested 6 person is not the person identified in the warrant. If the court does 7 not order transfer of custody, the judge shall order the arrested 8 person to be released.

9 (5) A judicial order to transfer custody issued under subsection 10 (4) of this section shall be directed to a peace officer to take or 11 retain custody of the person until a representative of the applicable
12 noncertified tribe is available to take custody. If the noncertified 13 tribe has not taken custody (~~((with—[within]))~~) within three days, 14 excluding weekends and holidays, the court may order the release of 15 the person upon conditions that will assure the person's availability 16 on a specified date (~~((with—[within]))~~) within seven days. If the 17 noncertified tribe has not taken custody within the time specified in 18 the order, the person shall be released. Thereafter, an order to 19 transfer custody may be entered only if a new arrest warrant is 20 issued. The court may authorize the voluntary return of the person 21 with the consent of the applicable noncertified tribe.

22 Sec. 9. RCW 10.32.100 and 2024 c 207 s 11 are each amended to 23 read as follows:

24 (1) Any arrest warrant issued by the court of a certified tribe 25 shall be accorded full faith and credit by the courts of the state of 26 Washington and enforced by the court and peace officers of the state 27 as if it were the arrest warrant of the state. Certified tribes' 28 warrants may be entered into the national crime information center or 29 Washington information center. A Washington state peace officer who 30 arrests a person pursuant to the arrest warrant of a certified tribe, 31 if no other grounds for detention exist under state law, shall, as 32 soon as practical after detaining the person, and in accordance with 33 standard practices, contact the tribal law enforcement agency that 34 issued the warrant to establish the warrant's validity.

35 (2) A place of detention shall allow a certified tribe to place a 36 detainer on an inmate based on a tribal warrant. For the purposes of 37 this section, detainer means a request by a certified tribe's tribal 38 court, tribal police department, or tribal prosecutor's office, filed 39 with the place of detention in which a person is incarcerated, to 1 hold the person for the certified tribe and to notify the tribe when 2 release of the person is imminent so that the person can be 3 transferred to tribal custody within 72 hours of their release from 4 all other holds.

5 (3) The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall be available
6 to any person detained under this provision. The issues in the habeas 7 corpus proceeding shall be limited to those identified in RCW 8 10.32.060 (4) and (5).
